Getty Images The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge today welcomed their third child, a baby boy, into the world and the royal addition could be no cuter. Watch Prince George and Princess Charlotte's newest brother. 1 of 16 The Newest Royal The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge introduce their newborn son to the world outside St. Mary's Hospital in London. 2 of 16 The Birth 3 of 16 The baby The newest royal is two years younger than his sister, Princess Charlotte, and four years younger than his brother, Prince George. 5 of 16 The weight The newborn weighed 8 pounds and 7 ounces, meaning he already had something in common with his siblings. Both George and Charlotte were born weighing 8 pounds too, but this baby is the heaviest royal baby ever. 6 of 16 The name The proud parents have not yet released the baby's name, but we expect to hear the announcement soon. 7 of 16 The Title Even though we don't yet know his name, he has already inherited an official title and will go through His Royal Highness Prince [Name] of Cambridge. 8 of 16 The Succession For the first time ever, the gender of the royal baby does not have an impact that next in line for the throne, meaning he is fifth in line. The passage of the Succession to the Crown Act in 2013 ruled that male heirs do not take precedence over their sisters, so this little boy will not bump Princess Charlotte from her place as fourth. However, Harry will move up to sixth in line, along with the rest of the extended royal family members. 12 of 16 The Crowd Will and Kate made sure to wave hello to everyone (high and low) who waited outside for hours for the big reveal before going back inside. 13 of 16 The Quick Departure Even though new moms in the U.K. spend an average of a day and a half in hospital, Kate greeted crowds and went home just seven hours after giving birth. The loud crowds outside may have led to this decision as she can rest more easily from them at home. Another difference: the royal couple have a 20-plus person medical team waiting for them at Kensington Palace. 14 of 16 The Goodbye The couple left the Lindo Wing of the hospital hand in hand. 15 of 16 On the way home the yet-to-be-named baby in a nearby car will be carried waiting to take them back to their apartment in Kensington Palace. 16 of 16 WATCH: What will and Kate's body language says about their family their posts don't lie. These two are amazing parents! To celebrate his arrival, a beautiful gift is always welcome. When it comes to gifts, keep the parents, their lifestyle, and family needs in mind. If you have a loss, a preservation or personal item will always stand out. 1 Courtesy of Amazon This holding kit is fun, easy, beautiful, and virtually mess-free. It's a heartwarming gift that allows parents to make an imprint of baby's hand and foot in clay. The kit comes with detailed instructions, the clay, and an 11 x 8-inch frame with space for two sweet photos and the finished shapes. With minimal time and effort required of sleepy parents — the casting dry in 10 to 15 minutes — this sweet set is a gift that will last forever. 2 Keep baby busy with this best-selling Jumperoo. There is no shortage of colorful, interactive spinners, rollerballs and light-up whatchamacallits. This play center will bounce with baby's movements, encouraging muscle and balance development. Brain-building play helps develop baby's motor control and hand-eye coordination while giving parents a much-needed, hands-free break. Parents will love that this play station is both safe and comfortable for their little guy. The Jumperoo comes with a soft-rusted seat that rotates with baby's movements. As baby grows, so too can the Jumperoo, with three different height settings to accommodate babies up to 25 lbs and 32. One of our favorite features is how easily it can be hidden when not in use. The base barrel to a nesting position that makes this ideal for parents tightening up on or for transporting to grandma's house. 4 Who says essentials like bibs can't be on trend? These gorgeous bandana-style bibs not only catch all the messes, but they're a fashion statement. Spitting happen-constant drool and dampness around the baby's neck can be annoying and harmful to the adorable baby buds and can even cause a drool rash. These double-layered, moisture-wicking bibs literally have baby covered. The 100 percent cotton outer layer quickly absorbs accidents while the polyester-fleece backing keeps moisture from the baby's clothes and skin. Adjustable snap closure allows for the bib to be modified as the baby grows. And our favorite part, they come with a 100 per cent "Risk-free satisfaction guarantee." 5 If baby starts sailing the house, they will need a little extra protection from slips. These socks are specially designed with anti-slip, non-skid tech baby's tiny feet to help grab the ground when standing or walking. We love the neutral suit of grey, black and cream socks, but they're also available in fun bright colors with the same anti-slip bottoms. 6 New parents can rest assured that when they zip their little one for the night, they don't have to worry about tangled blankets or cold bottoms. The HALO Sleep Bag keeps baby snug and warm without ingesting unnecessary blankets in the crib. Soft soft dot velboa will keep baby warm with plenty of legroom for kicking and stretching. The Sleep Bag is available in small (10-18 lbs.), medium (16-24 lbs.) and large (22-28 lbs.). One feature parents are sure to love is the reversible zipper on the bottom of the sleeping bag. It allows for easy access without packing baby out of the whole thing to do a middle of the night idle change. 7 This beautiful book will help new parents track down their baby's milestones. With easy-to-fill-in-the-blank pages to document everything from monthly milestones to baby's favorite foods and first home. This eco-friendly book comes with 48 pages to fill with things like ultrasound photos, baby's first footsteps, its birth announcement and hospital bracelet, a family tree and so much more. Parents can capture all the special moments as their baby boy develops month-to-month in an easy 9x9 layout. This is surely a cherished custody. 8 This is one toy that will last a lifetime. Solid wood craftsmanship along with brightly coloured non-toxic play elements make it the perfect toy for busy hands. With four sides and a tabletop packed with shiftable beads, turning maze, mold sorters and more, there are endless playing possibilities. Durable construction ensures that it will not tip easily, making it ideal for small ones to hold on while at stake. 9 For a new baby boy, the versatile Aden & Anais swaddles are a must-have. Swaddle baby boy in it, use it as a nursing cover, baby blanket, stroller cover, burp nect, or Else. The 47 x 47-inch muslin blankets come in sets of two or four, with tons of van to match any style. 10 Busy boys will love the lights, sounds and interactive game with this dump truck. Perfect for play that helps with the development of motor skills - large, brightly colored buttons learn simple phrases, color recognition, and melodies. For early hikers, the drawstring allows baby to pull it around and explore their surroundings. Complete with three 'rocks' size just right for small hands that can be ushered into the cab of the truck to hear it count out loud. Parents will appreciate the volume control: down, low, high for when they need a little quiet time. From the makers of award-winning leather toys, this dump truck is a perfect first toy. Suitable for young ages 6 months to 3 years. 11 Perfectly packed in a reusable canvas storage box this set of daily essentials got a bit of something for both mommy and baby. Aveeno is known for their soothing colloidal oatmeal formula that is soft enough to use on newborn skin. Included in the gift set for baby is a full-size bottle of Baby Wash & Shampoo, a Daily Moisture Lotion, and Baby Calming Comfort Bath and lotion for those fussy nights. And when mom has to relax, the set has a little something for her too. Included for mom is a full-size bottle of Stress Relief Body Wash. 12 The easy-to-grip, BPA-free teeth are a must-have toy for babies 0 to 24 months. The lightweight design is ideal for helping to develop hand-eye coordination and a two-handed grip. Reliable, brightly coloured loops cross on a center cube that makes a soft rattle sound with movement. The loops are made of durable, but soft, plastic that won't break down. For added enjoyment, this toy can be ushered into the freezer to soothe a toothba boss's sore gums. 13 Courtesy of Nordstrom. Babies are notorious for kicking off and losing small socks. UGG Bixbee Booties are as cozy and cute as they are safe. Perfect for a fall or winter baby, these booties will keep baby's tiny toes warm, snug, and stylish. The velcro straps provide a strong closure and are easily adjustable at the same time, so there is room to grow. Parents rave about how they stay on and love how cute they look. 14 Courtesy of L.L.Bean. A personalized L.L. Bean tote bag is a truly timeless gift. L.L. Bean offers plenty of sizes and colors to choose from, but what really makes the tote special is the personalization. Add baby's name or initials for a personal gift.
